PN Wood Fired Pizza

📍 2 West 28th St.

MAP

This new pizza place in Nomad has a "concept" - each night, you have a choice of two different flour options for your pizza dough, chosen from a rotating selection of (all organic, obviously) flours. A little gimmicky? Sure, but the pizza they turn out is some of the better Neapolitan pizza we've had as of late. It's a big space, and a good one to add to your rotation if you spend time in the area.
